GRATITUDE CELEBRATION WILL BE IN OCTOBER

CtK’s annual Gratitude Celebration will be a part of worship on three Sundays in October, beginning October 17th and culminating with Gratitude Sunday on October 31st. This will be an opportunity for you to evaluate your God-given gifts and how you can share them through the ministries of CtK. Watch the Weekend Messenger for more information.

SPECIAL MEETING SET FOR NOVEMBER 7TH

CtK Council is calling a Special Congregational Meeting immediately following worship on Sunday, November 7th, to share the results of the Financial Review Process. Please direct your questions to any member of Council or to Pastor Jeff. Please plan to attend.

CANDIDATES’ PROFILES ARE REQUESTED

All candidates running for office in the November 21st election are asked to complete a brief biography and submit their photo to Wendy in the office by Sunday, October 31st. The candidate biography form will be on the CtK website.

A booklet will be created of all candidates’ biographies and photos to help members meet the candidates and put faces with names. The complete booklet will be available online and as a printed document by Sunday, November 7th.

WORSHIP TIME CHANGE WILL BE ANNOUNCED

With summer officially over, sunrise getting later & later, and mornings feeling chillier, the time for Sunday morning outdoor worship will change. A survey was taken of the congregation seeking their worship preferences, and Council will announce any changes after their October 11th meeting.

Annual Church ELECTION

CTK 2021 ELECTION MEETING WILL BE NOVEMBER 21ST

Council has set the date for CtK’s annual election meeting for Sunday, November 21st, after worship. Please mark your calendar, and plan to attend the election meeting! This year there are three two-year Council-at-Large positions, one four-year Endowment Committee position, and up to six 2022 Nominating Committee members to be elected. The 2022 Continuation & Improvement Plan (formerly known as the budget) must also be approved.

The 2021 Nominating Committee is creating a slate of candidates for CtK’s November 21st election. The 2021 Nominating Committee members are David Schiopota, coordinator, Linda Bandler, Paul Bucholtz, and Chris Driver. If a member of the committee calls you to run for a position, please prayerfully consider the request.

DO YOU BELIEVE IN THE POWER OF PRAYER?

Is prayer a vital part of your daily life? Are you willing to pray for people even if you don't know them and may never find out the outcome of their situations? If so, being a part of the CtK prayer chain may be a good application of your gifts! Prayer chain participants are CtK members, and all prayers are shared confidentially via email.

CtK has had a prayer chain under the umbrella of the Congregational Care Ministry for many years. Ginger Pituch has coordinated it for the past seven years and has faithfully notified a group of dedicated pray-ers of prayer needs during that time. She is ready for a change and will soon retire as the prayer chain coordinator, but the chain will be unbroken!

Many thanks to Ginger for her years of prayer leadership! Watch the Weekend Messenger for prayer chain updates.

CTK HOSTS THREE MORE BLOOD DRIVES IN 2021

CtK's pre-pandemic practice of hosting a blood drive every eight weeks has not returned, but CtK is hosting fewer blood drives than it did earlier in the pandemic. Because the Red Cross is having difficulty staffing their blood drives, CtK will host a single blood drive monthly through the end of 2021.

Council has approved these final three 2021 blood drives:

- Tuesday, October 5th, 12 - 6 PM
- Tuesday, November 16th - 12 - 6 PM
- Tuesday, December 7th - 12 - 6 PM

All donors are encouraged to register for an appointment at redcrossblood.org. Please let Wendy know ASAP if you can register donors for a couple hours at any of the drives. At press time the Red Cross required all donors and staff to be masked in the building.

taking faith home FLIERS WILL NO LONGER BE SENT

When the pandemic stopped regular Sunday church school in March 2020, Deacon Patti Jabre emailed materials for our students. After Patti's retirement, CtK subscribed to the weekly taking faith home fliers that have been emailed to the congregation on Fridays since September 2020. At the September 12th Backpack Sunday meeting of Sunday school families, the consensus was to allow the subscription to expire in late November. Wendy will continue to email the resource on Fridays until it expires.

Some Sunday evenings...

...a Twinsburg-area church serves a free Community Meal from 4 to 5:30 PM. (Meals are carry-out only during the pandemic unless noted below.)

4th Sunday - First Congregational Church, UCC, 9050 Church Street, Twinsburg

5th Sunday - Christ the King Lutheran Church, 10285 Ravenna Road, Twinsburg Carry-out meals will be offered at CtK October 31st, 2021.

All are welcome for a free meal! CtK's meal on October 31st is carry-out only.

WEAR RED FOR REFORMATION!

Sunday, October 31st, is Reformation Day. This is the day that Martin Luther nailed his 95 theses critiquing the Roman Catholic Church on the cathedral door in 1517 and marks the earliest days of the Protestant Reformation. Red is the liturgical color for Reformation, so everyone is encouraged to wear red to worship that day.

STEWARDSHIP RENEWAL

Promises of generosity are on our hearts and minds at this time of year at Christ the King.

Taking the time to consider sharing of worthy gifts in your stewardship renewal promises is important. Your promises of support will continue the ministries in place.

God is at work in all that we do at CtK and in the community. May we continue to shine the light of Jesus in all that we do.

NOON WEDNESDAY BOOK STUDY CONTINUES

Pastor Jeff's Wednesday noon class is studying Mary Magdalene Revealed by Meggan Watterson. The group is open to everyone, and a typical session lasts until 1:30 PM. See the calendar in the Weekend Messenger for the weekly topic of discussion. You may bring your lunch to eat during class.

TUESDAY WOMEN STUDY THE HOLY SPIRIT

At 10:00 AM on Tuesdays, the CtK Women's Bible Study group meets in room 105 or in the Fellowship Hall on blood drive days. Wendy Gibbons leads the group. All women are invited to attend these hour-long sessions weekly or whenever their schedules allow. The sessions include time for fellowship and prayer, and there may be music, too!

The study through November, from the ELCA's Gather magazine, is called The Gift of the Spirit by Sara Olson-Smith. October's session, in the September/October issue of Gather, is Spirit of God: Breath of God, Reviver & Reformer. "We will see the ways that the Spirit gives life - not just to us as individuals, but to our communities, reconciling us and forming us into life-giving communities, even in our diversity."

EVERY-OTHER-SUNDAY KIDS' ACTIVITIES BEGIN

Because of kids' busy schedules, activities for kids will take place during worship services every other week. On September 26th kids-at-heart gathered for Bees & Geese with Sally (Morris) & Bob (Coleman). Watch the Weekend Messenger for details of future activities and your chance to help.

DAYLIGHT SAVING TIME ENDS NOVEMBER 7TH

When you go to bed Saturday, November 6th, remember to set your clock back one hour! Daylight Saving Time ends at 2 AM November 7th, meaning you get an extra hour of sleep. If you forget to change your clocks, you'll arrive an hour early for worship!

THE GIFT

What if everything is a GIFT???

BOTH the things we like, that are enjoyable and pleasing to us, that we might call 'good,'

AND the things we don't like, that are hard and painful and unpleasant, that we might call 'bad.'

There was once a couple- two souls very different and quite complementary- deeply committed to loving one another and their three daughters. The woman was suffering with worsening back pain, and was anxious to see her new doctor, after waiting through the summer to move into a new home, in a new city, in a new state.

Monday finally came, and the doctor was wonderful, listening and examining carefully. He ordered an MRI for the following day, Tuesday. The couple was eager for the results, considering countless possibilities, and preparing themselves for whatever therapy, or treatment, or even surgery, might lie ahead to heal the back pain.

The following morning, Wednesday, the doctor's office called and asked if they could come into the office that afternoon.

'Yes, of course!'

Then panic. Everything began to swirl. Reality blurred. Hearts pounded harder and faster than seemed humanly possible. Everything was happening so fast, and seemed to be accelerating even faster.

'This can't be good,' they worried together.

In the doctor's office that afternoon, frozen in fear, bracing for the blow they knew was coming, the doctor, with the greatest directness and compassion and urgency he could muster, uttered the words:

'I'm sorry to tell you this. It's cancer. And it looks like it's metastatic, spreading from somewhere, throughout your body. You need to go home, tell your daughters, pack a bag, and head straight to the hospital.'

What happened after that is hard for the couple to remember, but they do recall finding themselves, after the initial week in the hospital and weeks of radiation and chemotherapy treatments, at a blood cancer symposium where the keynote speaker was one of the most renowned blood cancer doctors in the country, who would later become the woman's transplant doctor. Each participant was given a slip of paper and a pen and asked to write the one word they would use to describe their experience with cancer.

You can probably imagine many of the responses. What you might not imagine is the word the man wrote down. The couple themselves were surprised to read the four letters scrawled on his slip of paper: G I F T.

It had only been a few short weeks since the couple had their entire lives turned upside down, altered forever, no chance of ever returning to what was, or even of living out the life they dreamed of.

That first week in the hospital, in the midst of the swirling chaos, the couple found a calm center, a place of Love, from where they consciously decided, together, to share their new journey with anyone who wanted- the ugly parts, the beautiful parts, the joys, the struggles, the fears, the hopes, the healings, the sufferings, and the Love- ALL of it. For it ALL was a GIFT.

And so we receive the Gift- the 3 steps to living Life as a Gift:

Receptivity

Step one is to receive everything as a gift. We can begin by receiving each breath as a gift. Then each bodily sensation, receiving as a gift. Each thought, each emotion, receive as a gift. Every person, every relationship, every interaction, every circumstance. Receive it all as a gift.

Gratitude

Step two is to say THANK YOU! As we receive all that we experience as a gift, we can practice gratitude. We can practice thanking God, thanking the Universe, for all that is.

Generosity

Step three is to share the gift. We don't impose, or force, the gift of our lived experience on anyone. But we freely, and generously, and lovingly offer all that we are, all that we have, all that we're becoming, in service to God, the Universe, for the greatest benefit of all!

Born in Shiraz, a contemporary of Chaucer in England, lived a beloved poet of Persia, a Sufi master named Hafiz, thought to have written an estimated 5,000 poems. Only 500-700 have survived, and many are included in a book called 'The Gift.' Once such poem, entitled 'To Build a Swing,' goes like this:

*You carry
All the ingredients
To turn your life into a nightmare--
Don't mix them!*

*You have all the genius
To build a swing in your backyard
For God.*

*That sounds
Like a hell of a lot more fun.
Let's start laughing, drawing blueprints,
Gathering our talented friends.*

*I will help you
With my divine lyre and drum.*

*Hafiz
Will sing a thousand words
You can take into your hands,
Like golden saws,
Silver hammers,*

*Polished teakwood,
Strong silk rope.*

*You carry all the ingredients
To turn your existence into joy,*

*Mix them, mix
Them!*

CTK TO SERVE OCTOBER 31ST COMMUNITY MEAL

(The church that hosted meals on the first and third Sundays each month is taking a break for health reasons. See the amended monthly schedule in the box on page 2.)
