GRATITUDE SUNDAY IS OCTOBER 31ST

The theme of this year's Gratitude Campaign is 'What if...?' What if everything is a gift? Imagine what we could do! What if...? What if...?

The three Sundays of CtK's 2021 Gratitude Campaign culminate with Gratitude Sunday on October 31st. The topics for the three Sundays are "Receptivity," "Gratitude," and "Generosity." On October 24th, 2022 Promise Cards were distributed at worship, allowing everyone a week to consider how they will support CtK in 2022 with their gifts of time, abilities, and resources. (Cards will also be emailed to be blessed at worship October 31st. See page 2.

ALL SAINTS SUNDAY IS NOVEMBER 7TH

All Saints Day will be commemorated at worship on Sunday, November 7th. There will be a candle lighted in memory of Tom Royon, CtK's only member to join the Church Triumphant since All Saints' Day 2020. Worshipers will be invited to light a small candle in memory of loved ones during the service.

If you have experienced a personal loss since November 1st, 2020 that you would like to have noted, please give the name of your loved one to Wendy in the office by Thursday, November 4th, to be forwarded to the worship leader. The worship leader will read the names of the deceased during the prayers of the people.

SPECIAL MEETING WILL BE NOVEMBER 7TH

Plan to attend the special Congregational Meeting immediately following 9:00 AM outdoor worship on Sunday, November 7th, to hear the results of the Financial Review Process. Please direct questions to a Council member or Pastor Jeff.

BIG CHANGES COMING IN WORSHIP SCHEDULE!

Beginning Sunday, November 28th, the First Sunday of Advent and the first Sunday of a new church year, CtK will begin a new worship schedule!

Indoor Worship Returns!

Weekly outdoor worship with Holy Communion will begin at 9:30 AM. For the first time since March 2020, weekly indoor worship will resume with an 11:00 AM service with Holy Communion and singing! Masks and social distancing will be required at the indoor service.

If you can serve as a worship assistant - reading the lessons and leading the prayers - or an altar care volunteer for either worship service, please contact Wendy in the office.

The livestream of the 9:00 AM service on YouTube will continue through November 21st. Beginning November 28th, tentative plans are to livestream the 11:00 AM indoor service. CtK will need people to take charge of livestreaming. Talk to Pastor Jeff and watch the Weekend Messenger for details about indoor worship.

CONGREGATION ELECTIONS ARE NOVEMBER 21ST

CtK's annual election meeting will be Sunday, November 21st, immediately after 9 AM outdoor worship. Please mark your calendar, and plan to attend! There are three two-year Council-at-Large positions, one four-year Endowment Committee position, and up to six 2022 Nominating Committee positions to be filled. The 2022 Continuation & Improvement Plan (formerly known as the budget) must also be approved at this meeting.

REFORMATION SUNDAY IS OCTOBER 31ST

Worshippers are encouraged to wear red to worship on Reformation Sunday each year. Because Reformation falls on Halloween this year, worshippers are invited to wear red or to wear costumes to worship. The October 31st service will also include a Children's Message with pumpkin decorating! Following the service, those in attendance are invited to share special treats from their cars as a little Trunk or Treat for kids of all ages! (Trunk or Treat is advertised on the sign, but we don't expect a huge crowd of neighborhood kids.)

My Christ the King 2022 Promise

2022 PROMISE CARDS WILL BE BLESSED

This year's Gratitude Campaign has Promise Cards for 2022 that are a different format from what CtK has used in past years. These are tri-fold documents that allow you to ponder the best use of your Time, Abilities, and Resources for the next year. The cards were distributed with worship bulletins on Sunday, October 24th, and will be collected and blessed during 9 AM outdoor worship on Gratitude Sunday, October 31st. (The cards are available on ctktwinsburg.com and will also be emailed to the congregation before Gratitude Sunday.)

GET TO KNOW THE CANDIDATES!

The 2021 Nominating Committee of David Schiopota, coordinator, Linda Bendler, Paul Bucholtz, and Chris Driver has been working on a slate of candidates for the November 21st election. ANY eligible CTK member may stand for election and may nominate themselves. Please speak with a member of the Nominating Committee as soon as possible if you want to be on the ballot.

WEDNESDAY NOON BOOK STUDY CONTINUES

Pastor Jeff's Wednesday noon class is studying Mary Magdalene Revealed by Meggan Watterson. The group is open to everyone, and a typical session lasts until 1:30 PM. See the calendar in the Weekend Messenger for the weekly topic of discussion. You may bring your lunch to eat during class.

TUESDAY WOMEN STUDY THE HOLY SPIRIT

At 10:00 AM on Tuesdays, the CtK Women's Bible Study group meets in room 105 (or in the Fellowship Hall on blood drive days.) Wendy Gibbons leads the group. All women are invited to attend these hour-long sessions weekly or whenever their schedules allow. The sessions include time for fellowship and prayer, and there may be music, too! The group takes a weekly collection that they are designating to help pay for an irrigation project and to buy water filters through ELCA Good Gifts this year.

The study through November, from the ELCA's Gather magazine, is called The Gift of the Spirit by Sara Olson-Smith. November's session, in the November/December issue of Gather, is Wind of God: Breath of God, Refiner & Re-router. "We'll see the ways in which God's Spirit moves us to bear good fruit in the world and refines us into our truest selves." Contact Wendy with questions.

What IF . . . ?

. . . EVERYTHING is a Gift,
and

*We practice Receiving,

Giving Thanks,

*and Generously Sharing

Our multitude of gifts??

What might be possible in and through the dear, gifted ones of CtK?? In and through YOU??

Continuing the story from last month's newsletter, the woman (let's call her Marie) went through radiation and chemo, then a stem cell transplant, and was in remission for a time before the cancer returned. More chemo followed, but the cancer was resistant, and after a year and a half, Marie died.

Before she transitioned from this life, Marie asked her husband (let's call him Dean) to make a few promises. One was to be open to future relationships. Dean sort of brushed this request aside, determined to be the 'hero' husband. He had decided that he was going to take his 'until death do us part' vows to a whole new level and remain married to Marie forever! 'What better way to honor Marie and the life and love we shared!?', he thought.

This went on for several months after Marie's death, until one day Dean's wedding band just fell right off his finger! He couldn't believe what was happening! His wedding band, which previously had been snugly wrapped around his finger, literally wouldn't stay on his finger any more. It slid right off! You better believe that he tried to put it right back on! And each time, it slid right off!

Well, after repeating this cycle of falling off and putting on and falling off again, Dean began to sense that something significant was happening. When he stopped trying to put the ring back on his finger, and instead took some deep in-breaths and out-breaths, settling into the moment and listening to his heart, he immediately knew what was happening. It was as if he had been blind one moment, and in the next moment he could see clearly!

What Dean thought was honoring Marie, by holding onto the life and love they had shared, was actually doing the opposite. In that moment it became obvious to Dean: 'The best way to honor the life and love I shared with Marie is by sharing it with the world! By letting go of what was! By flinging wide the doors of my heart! By opening to new relationships full of life and love!'

It was one of those 'Aha!' sorts of moments. All at once Dean understood what Marie had been so lovingly and persistently trying to communicate to him before she died.

And he never tried to put the wedding band back on his finger. He didn't need to. The love he had shared with Marie had exploded into a Love that was so much bigger and fuller and truer, deeper and inclusive and expansive, than anything he had experienced before! Into a Love that was untameable, uncontrollable, and unlimited!

Many more months passed, as Dean practiced navigating this new experience of Love. It was like learning to walk, or swim, or ride a bike all over again! Everything was different, and yet everything was the same, and yet everything was different!

And then it happened . . .

the next explosion of Love!

One that would forever and drastically change the trajectory of Dean's life here on earth and beyond!

There was nothing noticeably significant about the lunch Dean was sharing with Jean. After all, they had been friends for some time and had shared many such lunches together. The conversation was typical and unremarkable, catching up on life's happenings since the last lunch they shared.

And then it happened! Out of the blue! Like sitting outside enjoying the beautiful sunshine one moment, and the next a bolt of lightning strikes, followed by a fierce tornado. Out of nowhere. No warning. No indication it was coming.

Boom!

Dean's heart was struck with a bolt of Love that set his whole body to vibrating and reverberating with intense energy!

In that moment, Dean no longer looked upon Jean with his eyes, but gazed upon her with the eyes of his heart! In a flash, everything changed!

Dean recognized Jean, saw every part of her, inside and out, every cell, past, present and future! And he knew in that moment, a knowing so deep and strong and clear, that he had known Jean since forever, that he and Jean were life partners, joined together in Love and sent to this earth to embody Love, each in themselves and together, and to generously share this Gift of Love with the earth and every living being in the plant, animal, and human realms!

And they lived happily ever after!

Well . . .

. . . not exactly.

Next came the fierce tornado.

You see, Jean had not yet finalized her divorce, and Dean wasn't quite fully ready to move on from the life and love he had shared with Marie. It was one of those 'Oh crap!' sorts of moments. 'What in the world am I supposed to do with this?!', spun Dean's mind and heart.

So Dean took it to the one being he had learned to trust more than any other, Marie, his deceased former spouse. (Because Dean had come to know and experience, in this new, expansive Love, that Marie was very much still living, albeit in a different form.)

Marie's response came swift, and clear, and persistent, repeating over and over and over and over again, the five simple words:

Receive the Gift of Jean . . .

Receive the Gift of Jean . . .

Receive the Gift of Jean . . .

And so he did.

- ◆ What Gift(s) of Love is your heart asking you to receive??
- ◆ What are some of the challenges/obstacles holding you back from opening your heart??
- ◆ What Gift(s) of Love is your heart inviting you to share generously with the world??
- ◆ What are some of the challenges/obstacles holding you back from letting go??

A NOTE OF APPRECIATION

Dear Christ the King friends & family,

It's hard to believe that it's been seven months that Bev has been gone. I am grateful for the love and support you gave in making the July 9th memorial service for Bev at CtK such a touching celebration of her life. Whether you shared your remembrances of Bev, provided music, brought food, planned or served the luncheon, or were present for the service and meal, I appreciate your kindness.

Yours in Christ,

Jim Baker

FINAL 2021 BLOOD DRIVES ON CALENDAR

Ctk's pre-pandemic practice of hosting a blood drive only every eight weeks has not returned, but Ctk is hosting fewer blood drives than it did earlier in the pandemic. Because the Red Cross is having difficulty staffing their blood drives, Ctk will host a single blood drive monthly through the end of 2021.

Ctk will host these final 2021 blood drives:

- Tuesday, November 16th - 12 - 6 PM
- Tuesday, December 7th - 12 - 6 PM

All donors are encouraged to register for an appointment at redcrossblood.org. Please let Wendy know ASAP if you can register donors for a couple hours at either of the drives. At press time the Red Cross required all donors and staff to be masked in the building.

NEW COPIER INSTALLED AT CTK!

After a false start three months ago, there is finally a new working copier in the work room at Ctk. Please be patient as Wendy figures out which printing programs work the way she expects! (How did you like the upside-down Weekend Messenger page?)
